Description

Experience the confidence and refinement of the Range Rover Sport P460e PHEV Edition, finished in striking Borasco Grey and paired with an elegant Light Cloud and Ebony Perforated Windsor Leather interior. This Edition model comes generously equipped as standard, delivering a seamless balance of luxury, performance and advanced technology for everyday driving and long distance comfort. The powerful plug in hybrid system offers strong performance with the benefit of reduced running costs and quieter electric driving for urban journeys. Twenty two inch forged Satin Black wheels with Gloss Black contrast enhance road presence while also delivering improved strength and reduced unsprung weight for a more composed drive. The Black Exterior Pack and Black

Contrast Roof create a bold, modern look that sets this Sport apart, while privacy glass adds discretion and helps keep the cabin cooler on warmer days. Red brake calipers provide a confident visual statement and reflect the vehicle's sporting capability, and Secure Tracker Pro with a thirty six month subscription offers enhanced protection and peace of mind wherever you travel. This Range Rover Sport P460e PHEV Edition is designed to impress at every turn, combining commanding style, intelligent technology and refined comfort in one exceptional package.
