Description

Finished in striking Santorini Black with a luxurious Cloud and Ebony Windsor leather interior, our New Range Rover Evoque PHEV Autobiography perfectly combines elegant design, advanced technology and efficient hybrid performance. The plug in hybrid powertrain allows for quieter journeys, lower running costs and the flexibility of electric driving for everyday commutes, while retaining the versatility expected from a Range Rover.The commanding presence is enhanced by 20 inch Gloss Black Alloy Wheels and the Black Exterior Styling Pack, creating a sophisticated and sporting appearance that stands out from every angle. Privacy Glass adds exclusivity while helping to keep the cabin cooler and more comfortable for passengers. A Reduced Section Steel Spare Wheel provides added peace of mind wherever your adventures take you, and the Home Charging Cable offers convenient charging from the comfort of your own home.Inside, the sumptuous Windsor leather seats provide exceptional comfort and craftsmanship, creating a refined environment for every journey. This vehicle is further enhanced with Land Rover Approved Accessories including Front and Rear Mud Flaps to help protect the vehicle from road debris and a Loadspace Rubber Mat, ideal for keeping the boot area clean and protected from everyday family life, pets or outdoor pursuits.Combining luxury, efficiency and unmistakable Range Rover styling, this Evoque PHEV Autobiography is prepared and ready to enjoy.
